The Girl Says Her Child Was Born in the Midwife's House.

Mrs. Katherine Vetter, a midwife, thirty-two years old, of 215 East Fortieth street, was held without ball for examination to-morrow by Justice Feitner, in Yorkville Police Court, this morning, charged with performing a criminal operation on pretty Mary Kempf, a German girl, twenty years

The alleged victim of Mrs. Vetter is in a critical condition in Bellevue Hospital, where she was sent last night. The hospital physicians performed an operation early this morning, and there are slight hopes of her recovery.

Detectives Tierney and Nilon, of the East Thirty-fifth street station, armed with the information given by Mary, arrested Mrs. Vetter at her home about 1 o'clock this morning. She was taken to Bellevue Hospital, and there identified by the girl as the one who had named Louis Herman of being the cause of her condition. He last was employed a Clinton place delicatessen store, he police are looking for him. Mary Kempf came here from Baden, ermany, two years ago. She has no tends in the country except Sebastian hinner, a tailor of 246 East Forty-fifth Sirect.

Six weeks ago she went to live with a family named Lyons, in Dobbs Ferry.
Last evening, about 5 o'clock. Mary staggered into Spinner's shop. She was very ill. and Spinner sent the girl upstairs to his wife. Dr. J. J. Fredericks, of 121 East Fifty-second street, was called. Mary said she had given birth to a child ten days ago in Midwife Vetter's house.

An ambulance was called, and the young woman was sent to Bellevue Hospital. Later she told the Coroner that she had come down from Dobbs Ferry two weeks ago, and had been at Mrs. Vetter's nearly all the time since. She said the midwife had agreed to assist her for $50.

Yesterday, when she saw no indications of getting better, she went to Spinner's house.

In this letter, signed by Lebofsky, the parents are criticised for persuading Annie to refuse to marry him. "You must not think that you will take Annie." the letter states, "by telling her that you will give her another intended husband with diamonds. I am sure she prefers me without diamonds to the other." (By Associated Press.)
DENVER, Col., May 17.—Gov. Waite yesterday passed upon the charges preferred against Penitentiary Commission ers Chamberlain, Boeticher and Reynolds. The verdict is guilty, and the penalty is removal from office. But the Commissioners object to being removed. and the prespects are bright for a bigger turmoil than resulted from the Fire and Police Boards incident.
